EANM CONGRESS CHAIR 2023–2025

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to the EANM'25—the 38th Annual Congress of the European Association of Nuclear Medicine (EANM). The EANM'25 will be held in the vibrant city of Barcelona from October 4–8, 2025.

This year marks a significant milestone for our association as we celebrate four decades of pioneering advancements and collaborative efforts in the field of nuclear medicine. Our congress will be a unique opportunity to reflect on our journey, celebrate our achievements since 1985, and look ahead to securing the brightest future for our specialty.

The EANM Annual Congress is a truly global event, attracting about 10,000 participants from all over the world. This diverse gathering of professionals provides a rich platform for the exchange of ideas, fostering international collaboration and innovation. We are committed to exploring novel formats and interactions with experts, ensuring that our congress remains at the forefront of scientific discourse and professional development.

One of the highlights of this year's congress will be the continued focus on novel advances in theranostics. This rapidly evolving field continues to revolutionise our approach to diagnosis and treatment, offering unprecedented precision and personalised care for our patients. We have an exciting programme lined up, featuring leading experts who will share their insights and latest research findings.

But our congress is also designed to cater to all fields of research and clinical activity within nuclear medicine. We have specific tracks dedicated to all the various specialities, ensuring that every participant can find sessions relevant to their interests and expertise. Whether you are involved in clinical practice, research, or education, there will be something for you at the EANM'25.

In addition to the scientific sessions, the EANM'25 will provide ample opportunities for networking, collaboration, and professional development. We are particularly proud of our EANM Next-Gen programme, which was launched last year to support our younger collaborators. This initiative offers free registration and accommodation to selected participants to facilitate their attendance and integration into the scientific community, ensuring that the next generation of nuclear medicine professionals is well-represented and engaged. This year again, we will also offer a Young Professionals Lounge for congress participants under 38.

I am also very happy to travel once again to Barcelona, with its rich cultural heritage and dynamic atmosphere, which will serve as the perfect backdrop for our gathering. We look forward to welcoming you to what promises to be an inspiring and memorable event. Your participation and contributions are invaluable to the continued success and growth of our community.

Warm regards,

Valentina Garibotto
EANM Congress Chair 2023–2025

CLINICAL ONCOLOGY TRACK

Oncology plays a central role in our daily clinical practice and continues to evolve rapidly.

We highly encourage you to attend the Clinical Oncology Track to stay informed and deliver cutting-edge oncological care to your patients.

Providing the best possible patient care requires staying ahead of the curve and keeping up with the latest scientific advancements. We therefore invite you to join us at EANM'25 and explore the Clinical Oncology Track, featuring the most outstanding submitted abstracts in the field of Oncology!

Karolien Goffin, EANM Oncology & Theranostics Committee

CUTTING EDGE SCIENCE TRACK

This track aims to bring together all the disciplines concerned with Physics, Dosimetry, and Radiobiology and to provide attendees with the most cutting-edge innovations in these fields.

Medical Physics is a complex specialty which covers a broad range of areas ranging from the development of new detectors/imaging equipment to image reconstruction and quantification, dosimetry, tracer kinetics, radiobiology, and radiation protection. Today's new challenges include the integration of Artificial Intelligence (AI) into most of these technical areas, as well as its eventual implementation in clinical practice. One major objective is to enhance the interaction between all these disciplines, given their prominent role within the field of Nuclear Medicine by promoting a deeper interdisciplinary scientific discussion. Consequently, there will be more so-called Featured Sessions which combine invited speakers and abstract presenters.

The EANM Dosimetry, Physics, and Radiation Protection Committees will coordinate the scientific programme for the meeting jointly with the support of the Congress Chair.

We can't wait to welcome you to EANM'25—don't miss out!

Caroline Stokke, EANM Dosimetry Committee
Ana Denis-Bacelar, EANM Physics Committee
Jens Kurth, EANM Radiation Protection Committee

M2M TRACK

M2M – the 12th edition of the 'From Molecule to Man' Track – will delve into the cutting-edge of translational developments in Imaging and Therapy.

Since 2014, the M2M sessions have been one of the main pillars of the EANM Annual Congress. The M2M Track encourages cross-disciplinary collaboration between the various scientific disciplines concerned with molecular/nuclear imaging and therapy. By providing a platform for a wide range of scientific and medical aspects, the M2M sessions have become a dynamic forum which brings together scientists (e.g., radiochemists, physicists, and biologists), industry representatives, and clinicians – all contributing to the evolution of translational science.

The M2M Track features a curated selection of speaker sessions and paper presentations dedicated to connecting fundamental research with unmet medical needs. The EANM Committees for Translational Molecular Imaging & Therapy and the EANM Radiopharmaceutical Sciences Committee jointly coordinate the scientific programme of the M2M Track, while the EANM Executive Office handles organisational matters.

We hope that you will enjoy the sessions of the M2M Track 2025!

Tessa Buckle, EANM Translational Molecular Imaging & Therapy Committee

WORDS OF WELCOME

BY THE CHAIR OF THE TECHNOLOGISTS COMMITTEE

AGATA PIETRZAK

CHAIR, EANM TECHNOLOGISTS COMMITTEE

Dear colleagues and friends,

Dear fellow technologists,

It is an honour and a great pleasure to invite you to the EANM'25 Annual Congress in Barcelona (Spain), on behalf of the EANM Technologists Committee.

Every congress is unique – but regardless of the time or location, it is always highly attended and ever-growing. For the members of the Technologists Committee and myself as Committee Chair, the most rewarding part is seeing Nuclear Medicine Technologists come together, connect, and exchange. As passionate, active, and ambitious professionals dedicated to lifelong learning, technologists are the backbone of Nuclear Medicine procedures. This is a very special group of specialists, who work closely with patients and caregivers, planning procedures and ensuring the highest quality of studies.

During the EANM'25, the Technologists Committee will once again deliver a full dedicated programme – the so-called Technologists' Track. This track is specially tailored for Nuclear Medicine Technologists, and covers daily clinical and scientific routine, as well as educational content. Every year, the Technologists Committee strives to create a multidimensional programme, bringing together interdisciplinary professionals to present the most relevant and up-to-date content. Moreover, this track reflects the true meaning of the word "collaboration", by involving colleagues and friends from other EANM committees and sister societies to highlight the importance of interdisciplinary teamwork in the medical field.

The Technologists Track is your opportunity to:

- » Gain deeper insights into Nuclear Medicine as highly specialised technologists

- » Access valuable resources such as the European Qualification Framework (EQF 6 & 7) and copies of the Technologist's Guide copies. Do not miss it!
- » Explore cutting-edge topics, including: continuous education models for NMTs, FAPI studies, and more!
- » Enhance your practical skills through Mini Courses designed to support your daily clinical work.

In addition, we are committed to acknowledging your contributions and celebrating excellence in the field. During the e-poster and oral presentations, we will recognise outstanding work, with awards for the best presentations! As in previous years, we expect these sessions to be of very high quality and to offer valuable opportunities to share knowledge.

At the EANM'25, we hope to create another memorable and enriching congress experience, filled with high-level clinical and scientific knowledge. As Chair of the Technologists Committee, I would like to thank you for your kind acknowledgement of our efforts as well as your precious words of encouragement.

Please continue reaching out, sharing your thoughts, and helping us grow—because together, we can shape the future of Nuclear Medicine Technologists!

With my best regards,

Agata Pietrzak

Chair of the EANM Technologists Committee
